London Rail & Tube services

Oyster cards are not valid for stations on the map in grey type, nor for travel on Southeastern HighSpeed (St Pancras and Stratford International), Heathrow Express & Heathrow Connect.
Croydon Tramlink in smaller green type operates a separate charge zone equivalent to London buses.

For fares information visit tfl.gov.uk/tickets

The stations listed below are in London oyster card region, except those station names in lilac-blue print, which have standard rail or contactless ticketing only.

Where the rail lines are above ground, the drawn rail and tube lines generally follow their actual physical paths through SE England. The map's scale is disorted, so that the central section scale is about triple the scale in the areas around the M25. The positions of tube and rail stations and lines are as accurate as has been possible to construct from available sources

The geographical map uses public sector information licensed under the Open Government Licence v2.0 from Ordnance Survey. General design and intergration of data (c) 2023 Colin Chambers
